Career Services
Building your Professional Brand

OUR MISSION

To provide participants, companies and alumni with activities and services that add value to their professional development, EADA provides a unique opportunity to invest in employability, which is the value each of us brings to the professional market.

Our participants learn self-awareness, outstanding skills as an individual, personal interests, professional values, which all lead to a personal and professional brand. We help them plan and manage their careers and broaden their employment opportunities.

We collaborate with companies to facilitate the recruitment of top talent, supporting them to successfully meet the challenges and constant changes in the labour market.
