

PRESS RELEASE

Global MBA Ranking 2021

The MBA at EADA Business School ranked among the best in the world by The Financial Times

Barcelona, 8th February 2021. The International MBA at EADA Business School has been placed among the top 100 programmes in the world, according to the Global MBA Ranking 2021. Compiled by the leading business publication, The Financial Times the programme is ranked number 78 worldwide and number 21 in Europe.

The MBA programme, which offers a global vision of companies, is designed for graduates who have a minimum of 3 years professional experience and aims to help them make a qualitative leap in their professional career. The ranking was compiled using various parameters such as career opportunities, participants' salary, faculty and participant diversity, academic research among others (see table). To be included in the ranking, The Financial Times stipulates that all institutions must hold the EQUIS or AACSB accreditation. According to Ella Boniuk, director of the International MBA at EADA, “our clear commitment to an MBA which focuses on sustainability, innovation and leadership is having a positive impact on the careers of our graduates, their companies as well as society”

A year of triple recognition for the EADA MBA

This latest ranking coincides with the ranking published by the prestigious publication The Economist on 21st January, which positioned the EADA International MBA in the Top 100 worldwide at number 62.

Towards the end of 2020, EADA Business School also featured among the best 40 schools in the world as a result of integrating sustainable development in its MBA programmes, faculty research on sustainability issues and the gender and ethnic diversity of its faculty in the Better World Ranking MBA, which is compiled from 150 business schools by the Corporate Knights organisation.

EADA Business School, was founded in 1957 by a group of entrepreneurs and professionals as an ideologically and economically independent institution. As well as appearing in the well-known international rankings of the Financial Times and The Economist, it holds the EQUIS accreditation from the EFMD (European Foundation for Management Development) and the AMBA, which recognises the quality of its MBA programmes..